THE COURSE

The Race Round The Edge will start at the Tokanui Rugby Club, and the prize giving will be held at the Tokanui Tavern.

Competitors will travel in their teams, in their own vehicles around mystery locations within South Catlins. Upon completion of various challenges, teams will be given clues to reveal the next location. These challenges will involve both mental and physical aspects.

EVENT/SAFETY INFORMATION

- Confirmation will be emailed to every competitor upon receipt of entry.
- Registration – All participants must register on the day, and must be able to show that their vehicles have a current WOF, Registration and RUC are up to date. At least one team member must have a current full driver's license.
- Clothing – teams are invited to dress up in costume/team outfits, however it is recommended that appropriate footwear is worn, such as gym/running shoes. You may get wet and/or dirty, so it is also recommended that a change of clothing is bought for after the event is completed.
- Drink – We recommend that you carry enough fluid for the duration event.
- Food – We recommend that you carry and consume enough to get you through the event.
- First Aid will be available on the course.
- Driving – all vehicles must drive in a safe manner, obey all road rules and are to drive at 100km on open roads and 60km on gravel roads. Any vehicle seen driving in an unsafe manner will be immediately disqualified.
- Failure to follow organisers/marshals instructions or to comply with the race rules will also result in disqualification.

The organisers reserve the right to change any or all times in the interest of safety, because of adverse weather conditions, or unforeseen circumstances.
